A motion was passed to send a letter to Senator Jim Sasser and Senator Albert Gore asking them to support the American Heritage Trust Act. The president will write these letters.

Winners of the Bill Stutz Award and the TTA Award were chosen, to be announced at the annual meeting.

The subject of increasing dues was discussed at length. No motion was made.

Details of the annual meeting to be hosted by the Memphis Chapter were discussed. Date is October 7-8-9 at Shelby Forest State Park, Memphis.

Members were asked to write a letter to Governor Ned Ray McWherter asking for reinstatement of the position of Trails Administrator in the Department of Conservation. Letters were to be sent to Pat Anderson, who would deliver them to Senator Douglas Henry for presentation in bulk to the governor. Chapter chairmen were urged to push this in their chapters.

Evan Means said the third edition of his book, Tennessee Trails, would be out in September.

It was pointed out that more workers are needed for work days on the Cumberland Trail. Chapter chairmen should push this.
